FSIN SEEKS PUBLIC'S HELP TO FIND MISSING YOUNG WOMAN

(Treaty 6 Territory, Saskatoon, SK) – The Federation of Sovereign Indigenous Nations (FSIN) Executive is asking for the public's assistance to find 15-year-old Nina Nawakayas of Red Earth Cree Nation.

Nina was last seen on Sunday, August 28th at the Royal University Hospital (RUH) in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan where she walked away at 7:20 pm. Her parents are deeply concerned for her well-being and requesting the public's assistance in locating her.

She is described as 5 feet, 6 inches tall with brown hair and brown eyes. She is slim and has a red birth mark on the back of her neck. She was last seen wearing blue jeans and a dark colored shirt with three hearts on the front.

FSIN is urging anyone with information on the whereabouts of Nina Kawakayas to contact Saskatoon Police Service at (306) 975-8300.

The Federation of Sovereign Indigenous Nations represents 74 First Nations in Saskatchewan. The Federation is committed to honouring the spirit and intent of the Treaties, as well as the promotion, protection and implementation of the Treaty promises that were made more than a century ago.
